

Biography

Helene Belliveau has been a teacher, a counselor, a social worker, all the while covering more years of school than ever she will again. She has three children, four grandchildren, a loving blue-eyed husband. She writes, she paints, and currently she writes poetry. And once she was, and still is, a curious child.