Then, as manager/stylist at International Haircutters, NY, from 1975 - present. During this time, I also owned and operated an antiques business with a partner in Long Island, NY. Lost the store after 911, but continue to dabble in it until I can do more.

Have recently written a screenplay as a pilot for a sitcom about a Queens hair salon: it is being considered by a producer to be made as a pilot for TV.
