

Biography

Reverend Keith Cashman Mason

Keith joined the Writers and Poets club as an outlet for his gift of Writing. He is an Episcopal Minister, having served as a curate, rector and priest, in Nova Scotia Canada, here he was born, raised, and educated .

He also served as Rector of St Marks. Church in Leominster Ma for over twenty seven years. During that time he was also Dean of the Deanery of Worcester MA. Father Keith recently completed a book titled Search for Tomorrow, currently in the process of publication. The book summarizes his and his wife's, Maureen, experiences with his daughter, Colleen, who has learning disabilities and their founding of the Leominster Chapter of the Ma Association for Children with Learning Disabilities.

Recently, Colleen was a Ma. State Champion in the One Hundred Yard Dash. Father Mason comes to the Writers and Poet's club as a retired Senior citizen sharing his wisdom and life stories with the No Central MA Community through the power of the written word.
